

Code of Ethics

The Code of Ethics describes the type of person we're trying to grow to become in the School of Kingdom Ministry. It is not a set of rules that we are trying to ascribe to, so much as an internal vision of who we're growing to be. It is a set of values we use to try and make decisions and form the way we think.

God

- ❖ God is always good all the time. He doesn't use the devil's means to get his ends.
- ❖ God has the ability to turn any situation any way he likes. There is no problem too big for God.
- ❖ Our circumstances do not determine who God is. Jesus is the picture of who God is, not anything else.
- ❖ Our favor with God is unconditional because it is based on Jesus. We cannot be unforgiven or guilty in God's eyes.

Myself

- ❖ I am a son of the King, fully loved for who I am, not what I do.
- ❖ Jesus has defeated sin in me. I am no longer a sinner, I am a saint.
- ❖ Jesus tells me who I am; I won't look to anything else for my identity.

Family

- ❖ My spouse comes before all other relationships.
- ❖ My children are my legacy and I am to give myself on behalf of them.

Church

- ❖ I am fully committed to my local church as God's covenant people.
- ❖ I refuse to dishonor the leadership of the church. I may disagree with them, but I will support them and bring unity, not division.
- ❖ I refuse to empower gossip or slander within the church body.

Others

- ❖ I love, respect, and honor all people, regardless of how they treat me or others.
- ❖ I empower other people to get them to their destiny. I am not in competition with anyone else.
- ❖ I refuse to let fear control me, whether from people or demons.
- ❖ I choose to love others unguardedly.
